Avo

AVO is the harmony of two cigar legends, famed musician and composer Avo Uvezian and master cigar blender Hendrik Kelner. Produced by the makers of Davidoff in the famous Tabadom factory, AVO is known worldwide for its top quality Dominican premium cigars. When it comes to balanced, ultra-refined blends, AVO is at the top of the list. For a mellow to medium-bodied cigar give AVO Classic a chance, this fantastic blend provides a smooth and creamy character with notes of pepper. If you like a full-bodied cigar AVO Heritage is the cigar for you. This complex Dominican blend offers full bold flavor, whichever you prefer, AVO cigars are phenomenally blended and affordably priced.

Davidoff

Zino Davidoff, born to a tobacco merchant in 1906, Zino was destined to take over his father's tobacco shop after spending time in South America in the 1920s studying the product extensively. Located in Geneva, Switzerland, Zino's shop has flourished through the years specializing in high-end tobaccos as well as a copious amount of other luxury goods ranging from wine and champagne all the way to cologne. Davidoff cigars are equivalent to the Bentley in cars. Luxurious and worth every penny. Searching for a taste of Davidoff history? Look no further and try the Davidoff Grand Cru Series that stays true to its roots. Want to kick it up a notch? Indulge in premium cigar bliss with Davidoff Escurio, one blend introducing your palate to a rush of flavor and complexity. There's little doubt, when it comes to luxury, Davidoff cigars is your brand.

H. Upmann

Stemming back to 1844, two brothers August and Hermann founded H. Upmann cigars that is now one of the oldest brands in the industry. Committed to excellence, H. Upmann has delivered top-notch cigars to connoisseurs for well over a century and a half. Produced and distributed by Altadis U.S.A., makers of such premium brands as Romeo y Julieta and Montecristo, each H. Upmann undergoes rigorous quality control to ensure each cigar sent to retail shelves will have a great burn, flavor, and draw every time. Today, H. Upmann continues to build upon their heritage by releasing award winning blends for the contemporary aficionado. H. Upmann Havoc is a true testament to their modern blends. A medium-bodied Honduran made cigar that delivers notes of leather, coffee, and vanilla from the San Andres Criollo '98 wrapper and Nicaraguan long-fillers. H. Upman Legacy and Media Noche are other great cigar additions to the historic portfolio, and with decades of cigar craftsmanship you know H. Upmann is a quality brand worth stocking in your humidor.

Montecristo

Montecristo cigars started from humble beginnings in Cuba in 1935. At the time, there was a tradition of reciting stories to the cigar rollers over their long work days. One of the most popular of these was The Count of Montecristo. So popular, in fact, they named a brand after it. Since that day, Montecristo cigars has become one of the most popular brands in the world. Today they set standards for quality, flavor, and consistency among the top manufacturers. Montecristo now operates out of the Tabacalera de Garcia factory in the Dominican Republic. From mellow-bodied, Connecticut Shade- wrapped blends like the Montecristo Classic and Montecristo White series, to the bold, rich flavors of Montecristo Epic and Montecristo Media Noche, this brand is available in a variety of premium handmade blends for all palates.

Oliva

Oliva, one of the most famous tobacco families in the cigar industry, began with Melanio Oliva growing tobacco in Cuba in the 1880s. The Oliva Cigar Company has since migrated to Nicaragua, where they are the second largest grower of Cuban-seed tobacco. Countless magazines awarded Oliva blends 90+ ratings and Cigar of the Year awards. The Oliva Serie 'V' Melanio was named after the family's founder, and is a '95' rated full-bodied blend with a silky smooth wrapper and plies of complex flavors. Oliva Series 'G' and Series 'O' are impeccable premium selections from the fine portfolio as well. Flor de Oliva is handmade with 100% Nicaraguan long-filler, and the price is unbelievably low. Oliva cigars are a true testament of the fine art of cigar creation and maintaining some of the highest standards in quality control has earned them the highest accolades in the business.

Romeo y Julieta

Rooted in over a century of prestigious tradition, Romeo y Julieta is a premium handmade cigar that has been enjoyed by cigar enthusiasts since 1875. Originally these cigars were made in Cuba, and became overtly popular in the mid-20th century. Winston Churchill famously enjoyed Romeo y Julieta and liked them so much that in 1946, they named a size after him. Today, these cigars are handmade in the Dominican Republic, although they haven't forgotten their Cuban heritage, they are noted for innovating the industry with their specialized figurado sizes such as perfecto and piramide. Romeo y Julieta has won numerous awards at tasting exhibitions around the world. From Romeo y Julieta 1875 to Romeo y Julieta Reserve, and every other blend in between, these delicious premiums, Romeo y Julietas are always sought after, and always a good decision.
